The above referenced case is before this court upon the magistrate judge's recommendation that plaintiff's motion to remand be granted, and the case be remanded to the South Carolina Court of Common Pleas for disposition. It is further recommended that plaintiff's request for an award of fees and costs be denied.

This court is charged with conducting a de novo review of any portion of the magistrate judge's report to which a specific objection is registered, and may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendations contained in that report. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). However, absent prompt objection by a dissatisfied party, it appears that Congress did not intend for the district court to review the factual and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge. Thomas v Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985). Additionally, any party who fails to file timely, written objections to the magistrate judge's report pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) waives the right to raise those objections at the appellate court level. United States v. Schronce, 727 F.2d 91 (4th Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 467 U.S. 1208 (1984).<sup>1</sup> No objections have been filed to the magistrate judge's

A de novo review of the record indicates that the magistrate judge's report accurately summarizes this case and the applicable law. Accordingly, the magistrate judge's report and recommendation is AFFIRMED, and plaintiff's motion to remand is GRANTED. This case is REMANDED to the South Carolina Court of Common Pleas for disposition. Plaintiff is specifically advised that, pursuant to remand of his case, the only claims or causes of actions he will be deemed to be asserting are state claims.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiff's request for an award of fees and costs is DENIED.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

report before such a procedural default will result in waiver of the right to appeal. The notice must be 'sufficiently understandable to one in appellant's circumstances fairly to appraise him of what is required.'" Id. at 846. Plaintiff was advised in a clear manner that his objections had to be filed within ten (10) days, and he received notice of the consequences at the appellate level of his failure to object to the magistrate judge's report.
